

70th Republic Day of India was celebrated with patriotic fervour and gaiety at India House, Accra. High Commissioner unfurled the national flag followed by singing of national anthem. High Commissioner read text of address to nation by Hon'ble Rashtrapati. Children from DPS International School, Al Ryan School, Lincoln Community School, Bal Vihar and a cultural institute presented song, dance and skit on patriotic themes. Prizes were awarded to winners of an On the Spot Painting Competition on the theme "Celebrating 150 years of Mahatma" held on 7 October and winners of events organized on World Hindi Diwas. RD celebration was attended by large number of Indian Community members, PIOs/OCIs and friends of India.

