

Roundtable on investment opportunities in India at PwC office, Madrid on January 16, 2015

On January 16, 2015 Ambassador addressed a group of Spanish companies at PwC office in Madrid, highlighting the trade and investment opportunities in India with special focus on manufacturing sector in the light of Make in India, DMIC and associated projects; improvement in ease of doing business in India and general business climate.

After the initial presentation, Ambassador answered varied queries from the participants, including questions on suggestions to Spanish companies wishing to enter Indian markets, lack of dialogue between the two sides at various levels, lack of a dynamic dispute settlement mechanism, social aspects of infrastructure development and question on domestic energy and gas prices.

Photos of the event:

Ambassador with Ms. Goretty Alvarez, Partner and Head of the Indian Desk at PwC.