PRESS RELEASE

At the Graduation Ceremony of Kila Kila Secondary School, Port Moresby, on 2nd November, 2012. Dr. A.M. Gondane, High Commissioner, gave a keynote address. He congratulated the outgoing 12th Grade students on their successful completion of graduation. He mentioned about one of the all-time best teachers 'Gauthama Buddha', the true son of India, who became the spiritual leader of many millions around the world. While stressing the importance of education, the High Commissioner called upon the students to look inwards and realize their own capabilities and improve upon them to gain more knowledge. He stressed that education was a continuing process and the students should build upon the foundation at the School and acquire more knowledge in this ever-increasing world of modernization.

The Principal, Mr. Herman Panai thanked the Indian Association of PNG for their donation of 24 computers to the Kila Kila Secondary School, which would help in improving the quality of computer education in the school. The High Commission presented books for the School library. The High Commissioner also offered assistance from India for improving the facilities at the School and suggested that the school submit proposal for Indian assistance through the PNG Department of Foreign Affairs. Such assistance would be considered by the Government of India under the Regional Assistance Initiative for PIF countries.

Mr. C.K. Damodaran, Deputy High Commissioner, along with the Deputy Principals, Mr. Moggy Daniels and Mr. Francis Saju, gave away the awards and certificates to the meritorious students. The ceremony was also attended by Board Members and teachers of Kila Kila Secondary School, students, their parents and prominent members of the community.
