

India - EU Relations

India-EU relations date to the early 1960s, with India being amongst the first countries to establish diplomatic relations with the European Economic Community. A cooperation agreement signed in 1994 took the bilateral relationship beyond trade and economic cooperation. At the 5th India-EU Summit held at The Hague in 2004, the relationship was upgraded to a 'Strategic Partnership'. The two sides adopted a Joint Action Plan in 2005 (which was reviewed in 2008) that provided for strengthening dialogue and consultation mechanisms in the political and economic spheres, enhancing trade and investment, and bringing peoples and cultures together.

Political Relations:

The first India-EU Summit took place in Lisbon in 28 June 2000 and marked a watershed in the evolution of the relationship. Since then, twelve annual Summits have been held, the last one in New Delhi on 10 February 2012. The 12th Summit was the first Summit to be held in India after the entry into force of the Lisbon Treaty. The then Prime Minister, Shri Manmohan Singh led the Indian delegation while the EU was represented by Mr. Herman Van Rompuy, President of the European Council and Mr. Jose Manuel Barroso, President of the European Commission. The two sides reviewed bilateral relations as well as exchanged views on regional and global issues. The leaders expressed satisfaction at the intensification of negotiations on the Bilateral Trade and Investment Agreement, welcomed the enhanced cooperation in the field of security, and called for finalization of an agreement on R&D cooperation in the peaceful use of nuclear energy. The two sides also signed a Memorandum of Understanding on Statistics and issued Joint Declarations on Research and Innovation Cooperation and Enhanced Cooperation in Energy.

India and the EU also interact regularly at the Foreign Minister level. The 23rd India-EU Ministerial Meeting took place in Brussels on 30 January 2013. The then External Affairs Minister, Shri Salman Khurshid, led the Indian delegation while the EU side was led by the EU High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, Baroness Catherine Ashton. Bilateral relations as well as international and regional issues of mutual interest were discussed at the meeting.

Both sides have also instituted Foreign Policy Consultations at the level of Secretaries. The first meeting took place in New Delhi on 15 November 2011, followed by a second round in Brussels on 20 July 2012. The last round of Foreign Policy Consultations was held in New Delhi on 24 January 2014, led by Mr. Dinkar Khullar, Secretary (West), MEA and Mr. David O'Sullivan, Chief Operating Officer, European External Action Service.

A Security Dialogue envisaged under the Joint Action Plan is held annually since May 2006. The sixth round was held in Brussels on 25 October 2012. A bilateral Joint Working Group on Counter-Terrorism reports to the Security Dialogue, as do dialogues on Cyber-Security and Counter-Piracy. The last meeting of the JWG on Counter Terrorism and Cyber-Security dialogue were held in Brussels on May 20 and 21, 2015 respectively. In 2013, both sides also agreed to the institution of a dialogue on non-proliferation and disarmament under the umbrella of the Security Dialogue, and the first meeting of this dialogue took place in New Delhi in May 2014.

An annual India-EU Ad-hoc Dialogue on Human Rights is held in New Delhi, the eighth meeting of which took place on 27 November 2013. There is also a Delhi-based Joint Working Group on Consular Issues. In addition, a High-Level Dialogue on Migration and Mobility has been instituted at Secretary Level between the Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs and DG Home Affairs, the third round of which took place in New Delhi on 2 July 2012.

Parliamentary Interaction

A Delegation for Relations with India (D-IN) was formally constituted in the European Parliament (EP) in 2007 to follow relations with India. Following European Parliament elections in May 2014, a new D-IN was constituted consisting of 45 members drawn from various political groups in accordance with their numerical strength in the Parliament. The chairperson of the new delegation is Mr. Geoffrey Van Orden. A delegation from D-IN led by the Chairperson visited India and met the Indian political leadership in March 2015.

Ambassador of India, Mr. Manjeev Singh Puri, addressed the D-IN on 16 October, 2014, following constitution of the new D-IN in the European Parliament after the May 2014 elections and exchanged views with MEPs on issues of mutual interest. Select members also pay an orientation visit to India every year.

On invitation by European Parliament President Mr. Martin Schulz, Hon'ble Speaker of the Lok Sabha, H.E. Smt. Sumitra Mahajan led a 14 member parliamentary delegation, including 7 Members of Parliament, on an official visit from 22-26 June 2015 to the European Parliament in Brussels. Hon'ble Speaker and the delegation met President Schulz on 23 June 2015 and also interacted with the members of the Delegation for Relations with India
