

India-Iceland Relations

India and Iceland have, despite the distance and contrast in population size reached out to each other to build a friendship based on shared values and mutuality of interests. A string of high level visits since 2000 have imparted new dynamism to the bilateral relations, sustained by the opening of resident missions (in New Delhi in February 2006 and in Reykjavik in August 2008).

2. Iceland was the first Nordic country to publicly extend support to India's candidature for permanent membership of United Nations Security Council (UNSC). Subsequently, Iceland has reiterated its position on many occasions. Iceland was also the first country to co-sponsor the draft G-4 framework resolution on UNSC reforms in 2005. Iceland was one of the countries co-sponsoring our Resolution at the UN to declare June 21 as the "International Day of Yoga".

3. Bilateral high-level visits of Icelandic and Indian dignitaries have served to strengthen the official ties between the two countries. Highlights were the official visit of H.E. Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, President of India, to Iceland in May 2005, and the official visit of H.E. Dr. Olafur Ragnar Grimsson, President of Iceland, to India in October 2000. The Icelandic President also visited India in February 2005, January 2007 and February 2008 to attend the Delhi Sustainable Development Summit. He paid a State Visit to India from 11-17 January 2010 when he received the Jawaharlal Nehru Award for International Understanding for 2007. He again visited India from 29th March to 6th April, 2013. The latest visit of President Grimsson was from 10-13 April, 2015 (Private visit). At the invitation of EAM, the then Foreign Minister of Iceland Mr. Gunnar Bragi Sveinsson visited India in April 2016 accompanied by a business delegation organized by Promote Iceland.
