

MINISTRY OF OVERSEAS INDIAN AFFAIRS ANNOUNCES MAHATMA GANDHI PRAVASI SURAKSHA YOJANA

The Mahatma Gandhi Pravasi Suraksha Yojana (MGPSY) is a special, voluntary scheme announced by the Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs (MOIA) for overseas Indian migrant workers.

While working overseas, this scheme will help to regularly save a part of the income for resettlement upon return to India and also save for old age. The MOIA will contribute towards pension and resettlement from its own budget. MOIA will also provide all MGPSY subscribers with a life insurance cover.

Eligible workers who are interested in joining the Scheme must submit relevant application forms and identity proof documents.

Eligibility

1. ECR passport and a valid work permit or employment contract in an ECR country
2. Age 18 and 50 years old
3. Bank account in own name

Benefits

Eligible overseas migrant workers who join the Scheme will get 3 important benefits:

1. Pension benefit from NPS-Lite
2. "Return and Resettlement" (R&R) savings benefit from UTI AMC
3. Free Life insurance benefit from LIC
