Sir:

The Centre for Research in Rural and Industrial Development (CRRID) is an established autonomous research and development institution which has been carrying out research work covering diverse areas and subjects. So far CRRID has brought out 403 research studies and 69 books. The Quarterly publication, "Man and Development" which CRRID brings out carries articles and studies covering various facets of our political, economic and social transformation.

For our research studies, we seek the following information and documents:

1. Brief details of the visits of the Prime Minister abroad during the period 2004-2016 year wise
2. The copies of agreements and memorandum of understanding signed during these visits of the Prime Minister from 2004-2016.
3. Current status of the following action taken on these agreements and memorandum of understanding.
4. Brief particulars of the visits of foreign heads of government to India during the period 2004-2016 year wise and copies of the bilateral agreements with India signed by them during these visits.
