Students from Faculty of Law, University of Belgrade, visit Embassy of India

On 15th March 2018, H.E. Mrs. Narinder Chauhan, Ambassador of India held an interactive presentation on India and India-Serbia relations to a group of 15 students of the Law Faculty from the University of Belgrade at the Embassy premises. The students were members of the United Nations Club.

Ambassador in her presentation gave an overview of the development of relations between India and Serbia, emphasizing India's traditional openness to Serbia, along with the new possibilities for the development of cooperation in various sectors. Ambassador also spoke extensively on India's position on major international issues including reform of the United Nations. The documentary films 'Digital India' and 'Nirvana & Beyond' were screened for the students.

The Faculty of Law, established in 1808, as part of the University of Belgrade, is one of the largest law faculties in the region, with a long tradition of being in the forefront of the country's legal education. It has educated almost 50,000 law graduates. At present there are about 8,000 students enrolled in the undergraduate studies at the Faculty of Law, and hundreds more at various levels of post-graduate studies.
