INDIA-CYPRUS BILATERAL RELATIONS

I. Political Relations:

Relations between India and Cyprus have been traditionally very close and friendly. Archbishop Makarios had the highest respect for Mahatma Gandhi, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and Indira Gandhi. He was deeply appreciative of the support rendered by India to the struggle of Cyprus against British colonial rule. India has consistently and unwaveringly supported sovereignty, unity and territorial integrity of Cyprus and a peaceful resolution of the Cyprus problem. Cyprus too has staunchly supported India on all issues of importance including publicly endorsing its support to India’s bid for a permanent seat in the reformed UNSC.

2. There have been several goodwill gestures marking their special regard for and gratitude to India. On the occasion of Centenary Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, Cyprus issued two postal stamps in 1970. A bust of Mahatma Gandhi was installed in the Nicosia Municipal Park near the Parliament House in July 1972 on the occasion of the visit of President V.V. Giri, the only bust of foreign leader in the park. The avenue on which the House of Representatives (Cyprus Parliament) is located was named after Jawaharlal Nehru during the visit of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in 1983. The street on which the High Commission premises and India House are located is named after Indira Gandhi. India has also named an avenue in New Delhi after Archbishop Makarios.

3. Since 1964 establishing the UN Peace Keeping Force in Cyprus (UNFICYP), India has contributed three force commanders – Lieutenant General PS Gyani, General KS Thimayya, who died in harness in 1965, and Major General Diwan Prem Chand. The main road through Larnaca/Cyprus (East to West) were renamed as Gen Thimayya Road in his memory. The Republic of Cyprus, also honored him by issuing a commemorative stamp in his memory in 1966. At present, India has a 3-member civilian police contingent in the UNPOL.

4. Cyprus has been a staunch supporter of India on issues of critical and crucial interest to it. Cyprus has supported India to become a permanent member of the United Nations Security Council. Cyprus has also supported India post- Shakti series of nuclear tests, NSG etc.

5. India has consistently supported the sovereignty, independence, territorial integrity and unity of Cyprus, and has expressed support to a solution of the Cyprus problem, based on UN Security Council resolutions and in line with the aspirations of the people of Cyprus. India conveyed that it respects the democratic choice exercised by the people of Cyprus in the April 2004 referendum on Annan Plan.
6. In 2006, Cyprus extended full support to India in evacuation of Indian nationals from Lebanon. Under operation Sukoon, Indian Navy ships took the evacuees to Cyprus, from where chartered Air India flights flew them back to India.

7. Following 2014 parliamentary elections in India, President Anastasiades, FM Kasoulides and President House of Representatives sent letters of felicitation to PM, EAM and Speaker of Lok Sabha respectively. DISY (ruling party) President sent a letter of felicitation to the BJP President.

8. Hon’ble PM Shri Narendra Modi met with President Anastasiades on the sidelines of the UNGA in New York on 25 September 2015. Hon’ble PM Shri Narendra Modi met with President Anastasiades on the sidelines of the CHOGAM in London on 20 April 2018. In the context of India’s NSG membership, EAM spoke to Cyprus Foreign Minister on 16 June 2016. EAM spoke to Foreign Minister Kasoulides for Cyprus’ support for re-election of Dr. Dalveer Bhandari to the International Court of Justice in July 2017.

High Level Visits:

9. Over the years, India-Cyprus political relations have been maintained and strengthened through a series of high level visits. Almost all the Presidents of the Republic of Cyprus have paid State visits to India. The last high-level visit from Cyprus was that of President Nicos Anastasiades who paid a State visit to India from April 24-29, 2017.

10. From the Indian side, President V.V. Giri (July 1972), and President R. Venkataraman (September 1988) visited Cyprus. Prime Minister Indira Gandhi’s historic visit in September 1983 remains etched in public memory and is recalled as a significant milestone in India’s relations with Cyprus. Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee visited Cyprus in October 2002. President, Smt. Pratibha Devisingh Patil paid a State visit to Cyprus in October 2009. President Ram Nath Kovind paid a state visit to Cyprus in September 2-4, 2018

11. The President of the House of Representatives, Mr. A. Ghalanos visited India in 1995. There was a return visit by an Indian Parliamentary delegation in 1996. Two members of the House of Representatives attended the International Parliamentary Conference to mark the Golden Jubilee of the Parliament of India, held in New Delhi in January 2003. From India, Speaker, Shri Shivraj V. Patil led a Parliamentary delegation to Cyprus in September 1992 at the invitation of the President of the House of Representatives. In 1996, Dr. Najma Heptullah, Deputy Chairman of Rajya Sabha and Shri S. Malikarjunaiah, Deputy Speaker, Lok Sabha visited Cyprus. An Indian parliamentary delegation led by Hon’ble Speaker of Lok Sabha Shri Somnath Chatterjee, visited Cyprus to participate in the mid-Year Executive Committee Meeting of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association Meeting held in Limassol in April 2007. Shri Prahlad Singh Patel, MP attended the 45th Regional Conference of the British Islands and Mediterranean Region held in Limassol, Cyprus from 24 to May 2015. A three Member Indian Parliamentary

II. Economic Relations:

18. FDI: As per the DIPP figures, Cyprus is 8th top investor in India with cumulative investments of US$ 9.488 bn during April 2000 and December 2017. These investments as FDI equity inflows have gone into areas such as financial leasings, stock exchange, auto manufacture, manufacturing industries, real estate, cargo handling incidental to land transport, construction, shipping and logistics provider.

19. The revised India Cyprus DTAA was signed on 18 November 2016 in Nicosia. Subsequently, India rescinded the classification of Cyprus in the “Notified Jurisdictional Area” as from the 1st of November 2013. The revised agreement provides for source based taxation for gains from the alienation of shares; investments undertaken prior to 1 April 2017 are grandfathered with the view that taxation of disposal of such shares at any future date remains with the contracting state of residence of the seller.

20. It may be recalled that Cyprus was notified by the CBDT as ‘Notified Jurisdictional Area’ on 1 November 2013 under Section 94 A of the IT Act of 1961, since Cyprus was reported not to be providing the information requested by the Indian tax authorities under the exchange of information provisions of the agreement.

21. Trade Relations: Bilateral trade between India and Cyprus has increased over the recent years. The figures for the last four years are given below:
