India - Hong Kong SAR Bilateral Relations

Background

India’s relations with Hong Kong are historical and date back to the 1840s when Hong Kong became a British colony after the Treaty of Nanking as the result of the First Opium War. From trading ties established in the middle of the 19th century (1840 onwards), relations today span sectors such as investment finance, services, maritime, shipping, logistics, culture, education and trade.

Political Relations and major recent visits

2. The Commission for India, set up in 1951, was re-designated as Consulate General of India on October 15, 1996, in advance of China’s assumption of sovereignty over Hong Kong, which took place on July 1, 1997. The Consulate also has accreditation to Macau, which reverted from Portuguese rule to China on December 19, 1999.

3. Recent years have witnessed keen interest in Hong Kong in India’s economic growth and its status as one of the fastest growing economies in the world. Expectations here are that with deepening of economic reforms in India in the coming years, India-Hong Kong relations should deepen and trade and economic ties should expand.

4. Donald Tsang, the then Chief Executive of Hong Kong along with the Governor of Guangdong province led a business delegation on a visit to India in October 2010. The visit was more in nature of a business visit, while he met Governor of Maharashtra, MOS(PK) for External Affairs & Finance Minister during his visit.

5. In order to increase the level of economic engagement between India and Hong Kong and provide boost to the business, investment and people-to-people links, the then Chief Executive (CE) of Hong Kong, CY Leung paid an official visit to India from February 2-5, 2016 at the invitation of Chief Minister of Maharashtra. It was the first official visit to India of a Hong Kong Chief Executive. He led a 40 strong multi-sectoral business delegation, the largest one accompanying Chief Executive amongst his official overseas visits. During his visit, CE called on Hon’ble Prime Minister, Finance Minister and External Affairs Minister. He also addressed the business events organised by Indian and Hong Kong Chambers of Commerce.

6. Hong Kong has always acted as a “Gateway to China” for the companies in rest of the world. With the rapid growth in engagement between the Chinese and Indian economies, Hong Kong presents a great opportunity to act as a “Gateway to India” for the mainland companies and become an important stakeholder and a beneficiary of this huge opportunity.

7. Finance Minister Shri Arun Jaitley visited Hong Kong on September 19-21, 2015. During the visit, he called on Chief Executive of Hong Kong and also addressed the investors at the India Capital Markets and Institutional Investors Summit. Chief Minister of Telangana Shri K. Chandrashekar Rao led a high level delegation to Hong Kong on September 14-16, 2015. Chief Minister of Gujarat Smt. Anandiben Patel, visited Hong Kong from May 19-20, 2015. An official delegation led by Chief Minister of the Haryana Shri Manohar Lal Khattar visited Hong Kong from 23-25 May 2017. Sh. Raghuvan Das, Chief Minister of Jharkhand led a 7 member delegation to Hong Kong on a familiarisation visit from 6-7 September 2018. Sh. K. J. Alphons, Minister of State (Tourism) visited Hong Kong on a familiarisation visit

8. In November 2016, a business delegation from Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) led by its President Dr. Naushad Forbes visited Hong Kong. This was a return visit to that of the business delegation which had accompanied Hong Kong Chief Executive CY Leung (CE) during his visit to India in February this year. CE met with delegation to exchange views on strengthening business and commercial ties between India and Hong Kong.

9. With effect from January 23, 2017, Hong Kong government has made Pre-Arrival Registration a compulsory requirement for all Indian nationals who intend to visit Hong Kong visa-free for 14 days.

Bilateral Agreements

10. Agreements concluded with Hong Kong include:

- Agreement on Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgements (1968), [which was re-notified by Government of India in July 2012 due to a change in the nomenclature of Hong Kong courts following handover of sovereignty to China in 1997],
- Agreement Constituted by Exchange of Letters Between the PRC and India on matters related to the Consular Convention (December 1991),

12. India and Hong Kong signed Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement (DTAA) on 19th March 2018. The relevant procedures have been completed by both sides and the agreement has entered into force on Nov 30, 2018. This Agreement will stimulate flow of investment, technology and personnel from India to HKSAR & vice versa, prevent double taxation and provide for exchange of information between both the sides. It will improve transparency in tax matters and will help curb tax evasion and tax avoidance. The Agreement has also been the long pending demand of Indian community in Hong Kong.

13. Negotiations are in progress include the Bilateral Investment Promotion & Protection Agreement between India and Hong Kong and the proposal by Hong Kong to open a Economic and Trade Office in Mumbai.
Commercial relations

14. Recent years have seen relations between India and Hong Kong expand rapidly. Hong Kong companies also have been increasingly looking at India as an investment destination. Many Hong Kong companies have huge presence in India. This includes China Light and Power (CLP), Li & Fung, Shangri La, Kerry Logistics and PeakRe to name a few.

15. Hong Kong is host to a large number of Indian professionals in banking, IT and shipping. Eleven public sector banks and three private sector banks from India are currently operating in Hong Kong. Numerous global financial majors, investment institutions and fund managers operating in India have their regional headquarters in Hong Kong. Hong Kong is also a major sourcing centre for Indian companies. It has emerged as a major re-exporter of items it imports from India to Mainland China. The regional office of Air India is located in Hong Kong.

16. Hong Kong is major hub for exhibitions and conferences. Trade fairs in Hong Kong are an important opportunity as they provide a platform for the buyers and sellers across the globe to come together and interact. Annually, more than 60 fairs are held in Hong Kong. India also participates in many of these exhibitions to promote its strengths, mainly through export promotion councils and sectoral promotion boards. Hong Kong Trade and Development Council (HKTDC) had made India as its focus point for promoting business and trade linkages, and conducts regular field trips to various parts of India. In 2018, the Indian Export Promotion councils organised the Indian Pavilion for over 23 different trade fairs.

Bilateral Trade
