VI. High-Level Dialogue Mechanisms: India and the U.S. have more than 50 bilateral inter-governmental dialogue mechanisms for exchange of views on issues of mutual interest. Many such dialogues are held at the Ministerial-level including:

a. India-U.S. 2+2 Ministerial Dialogue: India-U.S. 2+2 Annual Ministerial Dialogue is led by the Foreign and the Defence Ministers of India and then U.S. counterparts. Three rounds have been held. The third 2+2 Ministerial was held on 27 October 2020 in New Delhi with the participation of U.S. Secretary of State Michael R. Pompeo and Secretary of Defense Mark T. Esper.

b. India-U.S. Commercial Dialogue: The India-U.S. Commercial Dialogue is led by the Minister of Commerce and Industry (CIM) and the U.S. Secretary of Commerce. This was last held in Delhi in February 2019. The CEO’s Forum was held virtually on 14 July 2020. A telephone call between CIM and U.S. Secretary of Commerce took place on the same date.
c. India – U.S. Economic and Financial Partnership: The India – U.S. Economic and Financial Partnership is led by the Finance Minister (FM) and the U.S. Secretary of the Treasury. This was last held in Delhi in November 2019.

d. India-U.S. Trade Policy Forum: The India-U.S. Trade Policy Forum is led by CIM and the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR). This was last held in Washington, D.C. in October 2017.

e. India-U.S. Strategic Energy Partnership: The India-U.S. Strategic Energy Partnership is led by the Minister of Petroleum and Natural Gas and the U.S. Secretary of Energy. The last meeting was held virtually on 17 July 2020.

f. India-U.S. Homeland Security Dialogue (HSD): The India-U.S. Homeland Security Dialogue is led by the Minister of Home Affairs and the Secretary, U.S. Department of Homeland Security. This was last held in Washington, D.C. in May 2013. The date for the next meeting is being worked out.

VII. Defence Cooperation: Defence relationship has emerged as a major pillar of India-U.S. Strategic Partnership with intensification in defence trade, joint exercises, personnel exchanges, and cooperation in maritime security and counter-piracy. Important bilateral exercises are: Yudh Abhyas, Vajra Prahar, and Tiger Triumph. Aggregate worth of defence-related acquisitions from the U.S. is more than US$ 21 billion. In June 2016, the U.S. recognised India as a "Major Defence Partner" to facilitate technology sharing to a level commensurate with that of its allies and partners. India's elevation to Tier I of the Strategic Trade Authorization (STA) license exception in year 2018 facilitates interaction in advanced and sensitive technologies. Conclusion of LEMOA (2016), COMCASA (2018), ISA (2019) and BECA (2020) further strengthened the framework for defence cooperation.

VIII. Counter-terrorism and Internal Security: Cooperation in counter-terrorism has seen considerable progress with enhanced intelligence sharing, information exchange and operational cooperation. The bilateral Joint Working Groups on Counter-Terrorism and Designation Dialogue is an important mechanism. It last met in-person in Washington in March 2019 (16th Meeting) and virtually (17th Meeting) on 9-10 September 2020. Both sides work together in law-enforcement and security cooperation through the HSD and cooperate on counter-terrorism and security issues in multilateral bodies, including on listing and designations of terrorists and terror groups.

IX. Cyber security: Cyber security cooperation is under the India-U.S. Cyber Framework signed in September 2016. The two important dialogue mechanisms are – India-U.S. Cyber Security Dialogue and the India-U.S. Joint Working Group on ICT (last held virtually on 1 October 2020). The inaugural India-US Cyber Defence Dialogue was held virtually on 17 September 2020.

X. Trade and Economic: The U.S. is India’s largest trading partner, goods and services combined. In 2019, overall U.S.-India bilateral trade in goods and services reached $146.1 billion compared to US$ 139.6 billion in 2018 [Source: U.S. Department of State]. Two-way merchandise trade stood at around US$ 92 billion. Of this, India’s goods exports to the U.S. were valued at US$ 57.7 billion and India’s goods imports from the U.S. were valued at US$ 34.3 billion. The India-U.S. trade in services stood at US$ 54.1 billion. Of this, India’s services exports to the U.S. were valued at US$ 29.7 billion and India’s imports of services from U.S. were valued at US $ 24.3 billion. U.S. Foreign Direct Investments in India has increased to $ 45.9 billion in 2019.

XI. Energy: The U.S. has emerged as a key partner for India in the field of energy. The bilateral Strategic Energy Partnership (SEP) launched in April 2018, is robust and enabled diversification across both conventional and renewable energy sources. An India-U.S. Natural Gas Task Force was also created in 2018. India started importing crude and LNG from the U.S. from 2017 and 2018 respectively. Bilateral hydrocarbon trade reached US$ 9.2 billion during 2019-20, a 93% increase since 2017-18.

One of the key deliverables of the SEP Ministerial meeting held on 17 July 2020 was signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between MoPNG and US DoE on co-operation in the area of Strategic Petroleum Reserves (SPRs). The scope of MoU covers cooperation in the areas such as safety, technology development, and management of SPRs. It will also facilitate in exchange of operational best practices, exchange scientific and technical information and conducting Emergency Response Exercises and sharing data on release and replenishment mechanisms.

XII. Civil Nuclear Cooperation: The bilateral civil nuclear cooperation agreement was signed in October 2008. India and the U.S. have a Civil Nuclear Energy Working group on R&D activities which has met 10 times and has ongoing projects under R&D collaboration. A U.S. company - Westinghouse is in discussions with Nuclear Power Corporation of India Limited (NPCIL) for implementation of a project that envisages six AP 1000 reactors at Kovvada (A.P.).

XIII. S&T/Space: The multi-faceted cooperation in Science and Technology has been growing steadily under the framework of the India-U.S. Science and Technology Cooperation Agreement signed in October 2005, which was renewed for a period of ten years in September 2019. The Indo-U.S. Science & Technology Forum (IUSSTF) set up in the year 2000 is an autonomous, bi-national organization promotes cooperation in Science, Technology and Innovation. It is playing an important role in strengthening cooperation especially during Covid-19.

iii. Both countries also have a long history of cooperation in civil space arena that includes cooperation in earth observation, satellite navigation, and space science and exploration. The India-U.S Joint Working Group on Civil Space Cooperation regularly reviews the status of cooperation and identifies new areas for furthering space cooperation and NASA are working towards intensifying cooperation in Mars exploration, heliophysics, and human spaceflight through relevant working groups between both sides.

iv. Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) and U.S. National Aeronautical and Space Administration (NASA) are working together to realise a joint microwave remote sensing satellite for Earth observation, named NASA-ISRO Synthetic Aperture Radar (NISAR). This joint mission is targeted to be launched in early 2023.
XIV. Indian Diaspora: The number of Indians and Indian Americans in the U.S. is estimated at over 4 million. It includes a large number of professionals, entrepreneurs and educationists with considerable and increasing influence in U.S. polity, economy and the society. They are a big stakeholder in India-U.S. relations having significantly contributed to the growth and development of the U.S. economy and fostering people-to-people ties.

XV. Education: India and the U.S. have very strong linkages and collaboration in the field of higher education. U.S. is one of the most favoured destinations by Indian students for higher education. More than 200,000 Indian students are currently pursuing various courses in the U.S. Last year, Indian students enrolled at U.S. colleges and universities contributed over $8 billion to the U.S. economy.

XVI. Regional and International Cooperation: Both countries are collaborating and coordinating on a number of regional and global issues in both security as well as development spheres. We are also intensively engaged in areas such as maritime and cyber security, humanitarian assistance and disaster relief efforts. The U.S. has expressed strong support for India's candidature for a permanent seat/role in an expanded UN Security Council and for India's early entry into the Nuclear Suppliers Group. Both countries have also been working together to promote peace, security, stability in the Indo-Pacific as well as globally.

XVII. Cooperation in combating Covid-19 pandemic: India and the U.S. have enhanced collaboration in R&D, especially with regard to pharmaceuticals, therapeutics and vaccine development. Indian vaccine companies are collaborating with US based agencies to develop and produce a vaccine against COVID-19 on a rapid platform. Seven such vaccines are currently under development, in addition to several research initiatives aimed at developing therapeutics and diagnostics to combat the pandemic. India supplied 35.82 lakh tablets of hydroxychloroquine to the U.S. along with nine metric tons of active pharmaceutical ingredient required in the manufacturing of the drug. The U.S. Government donated 200 ventilators to Indian Red Cross Society through the U.S. agency for International Development (USAID). India and U.S. have engaged with other like-minded Indo-Pacific countries to exchange information on COVID response, vaccine development and therapeutics, share best practice and discuss issues such as transparency and supply chain management issues and reopening of economies.
